

AGENDA

CCS READY WORKSHOP

Chateau Laurier, 1 Rideau Street, Ottawa Canada

TIME

THURSDAY 11 MARCH

9.00 - 9.30

Welcome and workshop objectives

9.30 - 10.30

Background and rationale

This session will provide an overview of the current CCS ready debate, existing definitions and potential benefits:

- G8 call for a definition
- Existing definitions /work done to define CCS ready
 - Technical definition (capture ready)
 - Broader policy definition
- Regulatory issues, concerns and constraints

10.30 - 11.00

COFFEE BREAK

11.00 - 12.30

Panel Session 1 - Proposed definition

This session will focus on the report commissioned by the Global CCS Institute. It will build on the issues covered in the first session and provide a proposed definition for CCS ready:

- Global CCS Institute/ICF Report
- Proposed definition
 - Capture ready, transport ready and storage ready
- Report consultation process
 - Overview and outcomes from roundtable sessions
- Proposed next steps
 - Feedback from workshop
 - Final document timeframe

12.30 - 1.30

LUNCH

1.30 - 3.00

Panel Session 2 - Technical issues

This session will focus on the technical issues considered in the development of the proposed CCS ready definition:

- Capture Ready
 - Plant siting
 - Technical requirements
 - Economic consideration
- Transport Ready
 - Identified routes
 - Common user network
- Storage Ready
 - Site identification and verification
 - Economic consideration
 - Common user networks or storage hubs

3.00 - 3.30

COFFEE BREAK

TIME

THURSDAY 11 MARCH - Continued

3.30 - 5.00

Panel Session 3 - Recommended practices

This session will focus on the Global CCS Institute/ICF recommended practices report:

- Capture ready, transport ready and storage ready
- Integration with broader GHG policy
- Existing Policy/Legislation
 - Overview of existing legislation
 - Why it was introduced
- Gaps and barriers

TUESDAY 10 NOVEMBER

9.30 - 11.00

Community outreach and communication with stakeholders

- Level of public awareness
- Differences between CCS Ready and broader CCS deployment
- Potential barriers to awareness
 - CCS ready perceived as a delaying action

11.00 - 11.30

COFFEE BREAK

11.30 - 12.30

CCS Ready for developing countries

- Business case
- Potential policies to support CCS ready
- Potential incentives

12.30 - 1.00

Summary and next steps